FRINT'S FINE FURNITURE REDUCED THINGS MAHOGANY.

The first mahogany log sent to England in the eighteenth century was made into a bureau for the Countess of Buckingham. At once there was a great demand for ma-hogany furniture, because of its superb oloring.

There has been such a constantly increasing demand, that we have a whole floor for dedroom furniture alone, and now all the dd pleces, and even suites are reduced, we must have room for new Spring de-

we have reproduced not only the antique designs, but the true color of age, and show-ing the most beautiful graining, so now it will last for centuries and increase in value,
